Neh.9,17: "But you are a forgiving God, gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love."

2Tim.2,13: "If we are faithless, he remains faithful, for he cannot disown himself."

From 'Daily Living':

The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count it slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance. (2Pt.3,9) The longsuffering of our Lord is salvation. (2Pt.3,15)

For this reason I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show all longsuffering, as a pattern to those who are going to believe on Him for everlasting life. (1Tim.1,16) Whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. (Rom.15,4)

Do you despise the riches of His goodness, forbearance, and longsuffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? (Rom.2,4) Rend your heart, and not your garments; return to the LORD your God, for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness; and He relents from doing harm. (Joel 2,13)
